District Attorney Jackie Lacey
Launches Monthly Newsletter

Los Angeles County District Attorney Jackie Lacey today announced the launch of a monthly electronic newsletter designed to better inform county residents about the office, its services and achievements.

"I am committed to sharing information about my office – whether it's our work on cutting-edge legal issues, keeping our neighborhoods safe or helping victims become survivors," District Attorney Lacey said in her first message to newsletter subscribers.

Scheduled for distribution on the first Monday of each month, the newsletter includes a message from District Attorney Lacey and feature stories about office programs and accomplishments. Additionally, the newsletter showcases significant cases, tips on how to prevent scams and office history.

April's newsletter spotlights National Victims' Rights Week (April 10-16), a tax scam targeting seniors and updates on three noteworthy cases. The inaugural newsletter also introduces readers to Laura, the office's first canine investigator, and features a video about the newly renovated Hall of Justice, headquarters for District Attorney Lacey and Sheriff Jim McDonnell.

To receive the electronic newsletter, simply sign up by clicking here: Get the LADA Newsletter. Members of the public also may join the email list to receive the newsletter by visiting the District Attorney's website at <http://da.lacounty.gov> and clicking on the link at the bottom of the home page.
